

Spectators, Viewing Areas & JetBlue Finish Festival Course Brief Handout

Here's how to watch the action on race weekend

SWIM PRACTICE

Saturday, September 11: 1 PM – 4 PM

After athletes have picked up their race packet at the Washington Hilton they will head down to the transition area to rack their bike and some will also participate in the practice swim.

Practice swim is from 1 PM – 4 PM and bike racking is from 1 PM – 8 PM.

If you drive park in Lots A, B or C on Ohio Dr just northwest of Buckeye Dr or on Ohio Drive adjacent to the transition area. To park here your athlete will need to be IN THE CAR WITH YOU WITH THEIR RACE BRACELET ON. The lots are accessible via 15th St, Maine Ave or 395s.

RACE DAY

Sunday, September 12

The first swim wave starts at 7 AM at West Potomac Park. You'll want to find out which wave your athlete is in to get an approximate start time.

We heavily recommend walking to the transition area to watch your athlete enter and exit the water, transition from swim to bike and bike to run. You can then walk over to the JetBlue Finish Festival and watch your athlete cross the finish line.

For those who would like to watch the action on the bike or the run the best vantage spot is at the Washington Monument at 15th Street and the National Mall. From there you can watch them bike and run past you and then you can walk back to West Potomac Park to watch the finish.

The JetBlue Finish Festival features a live band, food, post-race massages, and more. The easiest way to connect with your athlete after he or she crosses the finish is to have him or her call you from the AT&T/Samsung Call Center and then select a place to meet. Awards will be given out on the stage, starting at 11 AM.
